arch of aid. He collapsed sched Issas Stoll's house, words were: "My horse is stary-

One of the Stolls hurried to Shotwell's stable and fed the horse, which was whinneying in hunger.

Shotwell's wife died four years ago,
leaving her money to two married daughters in Chleago. The old man remained in the house, doing a little farming, and sometimes seeing no
one for weeks.

He became ill Wednesday last and feared he would die. He sat at his door, hoping to see some one pass, but in vain. The he leaded his shotgun and discharge it several times, but this too failed to bring help.

Bo, realising he must have help or die, he started for Stoll's home at dawn. He had walked but a short distance when he stumbled and fell.
He could not arise, so, desperate, he crawled.

He said the journey took him four

He said the journey took him four hours and at times he feared he would have to give it up.

OPERA'S SWAN SONG SUNG.

teceiver Is Appointed for Chicago Company on Salts of Singers.

CHICAGO, March 3.—The Central Trust Company has been appointed receiver for the Chicago Grand Opera Company. Attorneys sang the swan song in the Federal Court.

Charles Weinfeld, counsel for the company, told Judge Carpenter that the assets consist of $9,000 in cash and receivery and continues worth only scenery and contunues worth only $25,000, though costing $400,000, and outstanding accounts of $25,000, chief-ly in box rentals.

"The total assets are about $62,000,"
Mr. Weinfeld said. "The claims of singers alone amount to between $500,000 and $400,000. Harold F. Mc-Cormick holds notes for $280,000, which is money he advanced for ex-

SOAP ON HAIR CAUSES DANDRUFF.

BROADWAY AND THIRTY-THIRD STREET

Girls! Get a 25 cent bottle and try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse."

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still, use soap as sparingly as possible, and instead have a "Danderine Hair Cleanse." Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amased, your hair will not only be clean, but it will be "Advt."

wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possess as iscomparable softness and lustre. Bestdes cleaning and beautifying the lair, one application of Danderine dissipated to the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhibitant and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowiton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it.—Advt.

INTRODUCING THE FASHION FOR SPRING AND SUMMER

A SUPERB BUT FRACTICAL SHOWING OF GOWNS, WRAPS, WAISTS AND SUITS FOR WOMEN AND MISSES CENTRAL BUILDING-SECOND FLOOR

The most authoritative and attractive

Styles for Spring and Summer

will be shown here on Thursday and Friday of this week. This season we sent our representatives to Paris to study style, and to Monte Carlo, where society is wintering this year.

The foreign models and the inspiration of foreign style creation shown in the development of American designing are strikingly demonstrated in this Exhibition.

The Exhibit exceeds in interest even our own efforts in the past and is one of the most fascinating collections of new apparel ever shown in Brooklyn.

The Prices Are Remarkably Low

While this is an elaborate style exhibit, it must not be forgotten that it is a sale as well. That the garments are just as wonderfully low priced as they are fascinatingly beau-

The Exhibit Is in the Morning and the Afternoon, from 9.30 A. M. to 6 P. M.

Between the hours of 10.30 and 12 in the morning and 2 to 3.30 in the afternoon living models will demonstrate how the garments should be worn.

The inspiration of the noted French masters is shown in the exhibition in the adaptations of
